

Dear Bill,

Thank you for your note and the enclosure, which I first mistook as a draft letter for me to sign to a Cabinet member. It is obvious that your political image is keyed to the youth vote at the price of losing their parents.

I, too, would like to get together soon and hope we can do so once my schedule eases up.

Warm regards,

Henry A. Kissinger

Dear Henry:

Look at the abuse I have to take for defending you in public!

I would enjoy the chance to catch up with you at some point, should your schedule ever permit.

All the best,

Sincerely,

William Watts
